

Wilton Plaza — Terms of Service v1.3

WILTON PLAZA LLC — TERMS OF SERVICE

Version 1.3 — April 11, 2026 Effective upon acceptance at checkout

ACCEPTANCE

By completing a purchase on the Wilton Plaza website, you (“Subscriber” or “you”) agree to be bound by these Terms of Service (“Terms”). If you are accepting on behalf of a company or other legal entity, you represent that you have the authority to bind that entity. If you do not agree to these Terms, do not complete the purchase.

These Terms, together with the Service Description for your selected plan, the Privacy Policy, and any additional authorizations you may voluntarily execute during onboarding, constitute the complete agreement between you and Wilton Plaza LLC (“Host,” “we,” “us”).

Host: Wilton Plaza LLC 1881 NE 26th Street, Suite 212 Wilton Manors, FL 33305
Phone: (954) 568-3323 Email: virtualoffice@megamgmt.net

Day-to-day operations are managed by MEGA MGMT on behalf of Host. MEGA MGMT is not a party to these Terms. Wilton Plaza LLC is the sole contracting party.

1. NATURE OF SERVICE

1.1 Business Presence License

These Terms grant Subscriber a revocable, non-exclusive license to use the Wilton Plaza business address (the “Address”) as a business presence location and, subject to Subscriber’s selected plan and Host’s policies, to access certain shared on-site amenities such as in-person item retrieval, conference-room use, parking during visits, and notary availability. The primary subject of this agreement is Subscriber’s use of the Address and limited on-site amenities as a business presence location — not the handling of Subscriber’s mail. This license does NOT create a lease, tenancy, sublease, mailbox rental, or other possessory interest in any portion of Wilton Plaza (the “Property”), and Subscriber acquires no property right, occupancy right, or tenancy.

1.2 Incidental Receipt of Physical Items

As a revocable accommodation ancillary to Subscriber's business presence license, Host may, during business hours, receive ordinary physical items addressed to Subscriber and hold them for retrieval. Except for discrete, item-specific accommodations that Host may elect to perform on Subscriber's specific written instruction, Host is not Subscriber's continuing mail agent, registered agent, custodian, or representative. Host undertakes no continuing duty to receive any specific item, to sort, forward, scan, preserve deadlines, monitor contents, or otherwise act on Subscriber's behalf with respect to any item received. Host may refuse, return, or dispose of items in its sole discretion as permitted by these Terms.

If any court or authority determines that Host has temporary custody of a received item notwithstanding the parties' intent, such custody will be deemed gratuitous, limited, terminable at will by Host, and subject to the limitations of Section 11.

1.3 What Host Is Not

Host is not: (a) A commercial mail receiving agency acting as Subscriber's mail agent; (b) Subscriber's registered agent (see Section 1.4); (c) A fiduciary; (d) A law firm, accounting firm, or provider of professional advice; (e) Subscriber's custodian for government, legal, tax, or other time-sensitive documents; (f) Subscriber's representative with the United States Postal Service or any other regulatory authority.

Subscriber is solely responsible for Subscriber's own mail-receiving arrangements and compliance with any applicable federal, state, or local regulations governing Subscriber's receipt of mail at this or any other address.

1.4 No Registered Agent Relationship

Unless Subscriber has a separate, written, executed Registered Agent Agreement with Host, these Terms do NOT make Wilton Plaza LLC Subscriber's registered agent. Subscriber may NOT: - Designate Wilton Plaza LLC as Subscriber's Florida registered agent; - List Wilton Plaza LLC as Subscriber's registered agent on Sunbiz, Articles of Organization, Articles of Incorporation, annual reports, or any other state or federal filing; - Direct service of process to our address; - Represent or imply to any third party that Host is Subscriber's registered agent.

Registered Agent service is not offered as a self-serve product under these Terms. Subscriber may submit an application for Registered Agent service via the application form on our website. Applications are reviewed on a case-by-case basis at Host's sole discretion, are subject to Host's eligibility review, and require a separately-executed Registered Agent Agreement before any Registered Agent relationship exists. Submission of an application does not create any registered agent relationship or duty, and acceptance of such application by Host does not occur until a separate Registered Agent Agreement is fully executed.

If legal process, service of process, or other legal papers are attempted, delivered, mailed, or left at the Address for Subscriber's entity without an active, separate, fully-executed Registered Agent Agreement, Host is not authorized to accept such process and will attempt to refuse or return it. Any inadvertent delivery does not constitute acceptance by Host, does not appoint Host as Subscriber's registered agent, does not create any agency relationship, and does not create any duty for Host to monitor deadlines, forward documents, or respond to such documents on Subscriber's behalf, though Host may notify Subscriber by email as a courtesy without assuming any duty to do so.

Without limiting the foregoing, Subscriber may not list, submit, or permit the Address to appear in any form, filing, application, database, or public record field designated for "registered office," "registered agent address," "service of process," "legal notices," "official notices," "tax notices," "court notices," or any similar field indicating an address for receipt or acceptance of statutory, governmental, regulatory, judicial, or other official legal notices.

Violation of this Section 1.4 is grounds for immediate termination under Section 10.5.

1.5 No Legal, Tax, or Professional Advice

Host does not provide legal, tax, accounting, compliance, or any other professional advice. Host is not a law firm, CPA firm, or fiduciary. Subscriber is solely responsible for obtaining independent professional counsel for all legal, tax, regulatory, and compliance matters.

Interested parties may submit an application via the website form at </contact?interest=registered-agent>. Applications are reviewed by Host on a case-by-case basis and are subject to Host's eligibility review. No Registered Agent relationship exists unless and until a separate Registered Agent Agreement is fully executed between Host and applicant.

3. TERM AND BILLING

3.1 Initial Term

All plans have a minimum initial term of twelve (12) months from the Activation Date. Payment may be made quarterly or annually, but quarterly payment does not reduce the commitment period.

3.2 Billing Cadence

- Quarterly billing: Subscriber is charged the quarterly amount ($117 BA / $147 VO) every three months in advance, beginning on the Activation Date. Four quarterly payments complete the annual term.
- Annual billing: Subscriber is charged the full annual amount ($390 BA / $550 VO) in advance on the Activation Date.
- Variable charges (postage, scan fees, conference extras, handling fees) are billed to Subscriber's payment method monthly in arrears.

3.3 Renewal

After the initial 12-month term, Subscriber's plan automatically renews for successive 12-month periods unless Subscriber provides written cancellation notice at least thirty (30) days before the renewal date.

Subscriber may cancel by emailing virtualoffice@megamgmt.net or by using any online cancellation method Host makes available. Host will send confirmation of receipt of a cancellation request by email within two (2) business days.

Renewal Reminder. Host will send a renewal reminder via email at least thirty (30) days before each renewal date, as required by Florida Statutes Section 501.165. The renewal reminder will state: (a) the upcoming renewal date, (b) the amount to be charged, (c) the billing method, and (d) clear instructions on how to cancel, including a direct email address and any online cancellation method then available.

3.4 Payment Method

Subscriber authorizes Host to charge the credit card, debit card, or bank account provided at checkout for all fees due under these Terms, including recurring plan fees and variable charges. Subscriber agrees to maintain a valid payment method on file and update it within five (5) business days of any change.

3.5 Failed Payments and Account States

State	Trigger	Items Received	Packages	On-Request Services
Pre-Activation	Payment received, onboarding incomplete	Refused	Refused	None

State	Trigger	Items Received	Packages	On-Request Services
Active	All activation conditions met	Per plan	Per plan	Per plan
Restricted	Quarterly or annual payment fails after retry period	Held only. No scanning, no forwarding on request	Held in-transit items only; no new acceptance	Suspended
Terminated	7 days after Restricted with no payment, OR cancellation, OR Section 10.5	Held 30 days then returned to sender	Returned to sender	None

Payment failure timeline: - Day -10: Reminder email (upcoming charge) - Day -7: First charge attempt - Day -4: Retry - Day -1: Final retry - Day 0 (charge date, unpaid): Account enters Restricted state. Final cure notice sent. - Day +7 (still unpaid): Account Terminated.

3.6 Early Termination

If Subscriber selected quarterly billing and requests termination before the end of the current 12-month term, Subscriber remains responsible for the unpaid committed fees for that term; provided, however, the amount Host may charge after cancellation will not exceed the lesser of: (a) the unpaid quarterly installments remaining in the then-current initial term, or (b) two (2) monthly-equivalent plan fees. This fee is charged to Subscriber's payment method on file.

If Subscriber selected annual billing, no additional early termination fee applies because the annual fee is prepaid and non-refundable under Section 3.7.

For clarity, the early termination fee is not charged in addition to amounts already prepaid for the same service period.

Subscriber acknowledges that any early termination fee under this section was clearly disclosed and agreed to at the time of purchase, and that it represents a reasonable estimate of Host's costs for onboarding, screening, address setup, and administrative processing.

3.7 No Refunds

All fees are non-refundable. No prorated refunds are provided for early cancellation or unused services, except: (a) if Host denies Subscriber's application during onboarding (full refund), or (b) as required by applicable law.

3.8 Price Adjustments

Host may change service fees only for future renewal terms, not during a prepaid quarterly period or prepaid annual term, except for taxes, postage, carrier charges, government-imposed fees, or optional on-request services.

Any material change to pricing will be disclosed in writing at least sixty (60) days before the start of Subscriber's next renewal term and will not take effect until the start of that renewal term unless Subscriber affirmatively agrees sooner. If Subscriber does not wish to continue at the new pricing, Subscriber may cancel before renewal without any early termination fee.

4. ONBOARDING AND ACTIVATION

4.1 Payment Does Not Equal Activation

Subscriber's purchase initiates the onboarding process. Service is NOT active until all onboarding requirements are met and Subscriber receives an Activation Notice from Host. Subscriber may NOT use the Wilton Plaza address for any purpose before receiving the Activation Notice.

4.2 Onboarding Requirements

Before activation, Subscriber must:

- a. Have payment confirmed by Stripe
- b. Complete the onboarding form with accurate information (legal name, company name, entity type, billing address, primary contact email, phone number, country of residence)
- c. Provide a copy of one (1) government-issued identification document (driver license, passport, or equivalent) for Host's internal record
- d. Accept these Terms at checkout via clickwrap
- e. Pass Host's basic identity and fraud screening, which may include: OFAC Specially Designated Nationals list check, Florida Sunbiz verification (for Florida entities), and review of public records for concerning signals

Host does not collect USPS Form 1583 as part of this offering. Subscriber remains solely responsible for determining and satisfying any USPS or other regulatory requirements that may apply to Subscriber's own use of the Address.

4.3 Onboarding Timeline

Host targets activation within five (5) business days of receiving all required information and completing screening. If Subscriber does not complete onboarding requirements within fifteen (15) business days of payment, Host may cancel the order and issue a full refund.

4.4 Pre-Activation Use Prohibited

If Subscriber uses the Wilton Plaza address for any purpose before receiving an Activation Notice, Host may terminate Subscriber's service immediately without refund and notify relevant authorities of the unauthorized use.

4.5 Right To Deny

Host reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to deny any application based on identity verification results, fraud screening results, reputational concerns, compatibility of intended use with Host's services, or any other reason not prohibited by law. Denied applications receive a full refund.

5. ADDRESS USE LICENSE

5.1 Permitted Use

Subject to this Agreement, including Sections 5.2 and 9.3, Subscriber may use the Address solely as a business presence and contact address for lawful business purposes, including on Subscriber's website, business cards, letterhead, invoices, marketing materials, email signatures, online directories, and ordinary business correspondence. Subscriber may also receive limited mail and packages at the Address only as an incidental convenience to the business presence services provided under this Agreement.

Subscriber may not use the Address in any field or context that states or implies that: (a) Subscriber is continuously or regularly physically present or staffed at the Property; (b) Host has agreed to receive, monitor, or accept service of process, legal notices, tax notices, governmental notices, court notices, or other official correspondence on Subscriber's behalf; or (c) the Address is Subscriber's registered office, registered agent address, legal notice address, official notice address, or any other address carrying a legal duty to receive notices or process.

Mandatory Address Format. Subscriber must use the Address only in the format assigned by Host and may not substitute alternate formats, suffixes, suite designations, or unit numbers in ways that imply exclusive physical office occupancy or that cause misdelivery or misrepresentation to third parties. Use of any alternate format that causes operational burden, misdelivery, or misrepresentation is a material breach and grounds for termination under Section 10.3.

5.2 Prohibited Use

Subscriber shall not use, and shall not permit any third party to use, the Address or the Services: (i) as a registered office, registered agent address, or other address for service of process; (ii) in any application, filing, database, government record, court record, tax record, or similar form field designated for legal notices, official notices, tax notices, court notices, governmental notices, or comparable statutory or regulatory communications; (iii) as an address at which Host is expected to monitor for, accept, or promptly relay time-sensitive legal or governmental communications; (iv) in any manner that suggests Host is Subscriber's registered agent, mail agent for legal process, or authorized recipient of official notices; or (v) for any unlawful, misleading, fraudulent, or deceptive purpose.

Host is not Subscriber's registered agent and does not undertake any duty to accept, monitor, forward, escalate, or respond to service of process, legal notices, governmental notices, or other official communications.

Additional prohibited uses. Subscriber may NOT: - Represent that Subscriber maintains an exclusive physical office at Wilton Plaza - Represent that Host is Subscriber's mail agent, mail custodian, or representative - Use Host's telephone number or create liabilities against Host - File a USPS Change of Address (Form 3575) directing mail FROM the Address - Receive hazardous materials, controlled substances, or illegal items - Use the Address prior to activation (Section 4.4) - Use the Address as a residential address, personal domicile, or place of abode - Use the Address for voter registration, driver's license, vehicle registration, school enrollment, or homestead exemption - Use the Address for inventory storage, order fulfillment, e-commerce shipping, drop-shipping, or high-volume mail operations

5.3 Business Filings Acknowledgment

Subscriber acknowledges that use of the Address on state business registrations, professional license applications, annual reports, and similar public filings may result in government or regulatory correspondence being delivered to the Address. Host will use commercially reasonable efforts to receive and hold such items as part of the incidental convenience described in Section 6. However, Host does not guarantee receipt, monitoring, or timely delivery of any specific item, and Subscriber remains solely responsible for monitoring all regulatory deadlines and maintaining compliance with any applicable licensing requirements. Subscriber is strongly advised to maintain a separate, monitored mailing address or registered agent for time-critical government correspondence.

5.4 No Third-Party Guarantee

Host does not guarantee that the Wilton Plaza address will be accepted by any third party, including but not limited to Google, banks, insurance companies, licensing boards, zoning offices, payment processors, or marketplace platforms. Rejection of the address by any third party is not a breach of these Terms and does not entitle Subscriber to any refund.

5.5 Address Removal Obligation

Upon termination of Subscriber's service for any reason, Subscriber must:

- a. Immediately cease all use of the Wilton Plaza address
- b. Remove the address from all state filings (Sunbiz), federal filings (IRS), banking records, professional licenses, Google Business Profile, website, marketing materials, and all other public or private records within thirty (30) days of termination
- c. Notify all relevant third parties of Subscriber's new address

If Subscriber fails to remove the address within thirty (30) days, Host will provide written notice identifying the specific public records where the address remains. Subscriber will have fifteen (15) additional days from such notice to cure. If the address is not removed within this cure period, the following apply:

- a. Correction filings. Host may file corrections with relevant authorities at Subscriber's expense at actual cost plus a reasonable administrative fee, not to exceed $50.00 per filing.
- b. Unauthorized public-address-use administrative fee. $25.00 per month per terminated account, beginning only after the cure period and continuing until the address is removed from the identified public records, provided that this fee will not accrue for more than six (6) months. The parties agree this amount is a reasonable estimate of Host's ongoing administrative burden from continued unauthorized public use of the address, including return-to-sender processing and administrative recordkeeping, and is not a penalty.
- c. Host may report the unauthorized use to relevant state and federal authorities.

This obligation survives termination of these Terms.

6. INCIDENTAL MAIL HANDLING

6.1 Nature — Convenience, Not Service

Host's receipt of physical items addressed to Subscriber is an incidental convenience provided as an accessory to Subscriber's primary business presence license (Section 1.1). It is not a professional mail service, custodial service, or mail agent service. Subscriber acknowledges:

- a. Host has no duty to receive any specific item;
- b. Host has no duty to sort, scan, forward, open, or otherwise process any item as a systematic service;
- c. Host has no duty to monitor deadlines, legal notices, tax notices, court documents, banking communications, or any other time-sensitive materials;
- d. Host has no duty to notify Subscriber of the contents or arrival of any item;
- e. Host may refuse, return, or dispose of any item at its sole discretion;
- f. Receipt of items by Host does not create an agency, bailment, custodial, or fiduciary relationship, subject to the gratuitous-custody fallback in Section 1.2.

6.2 Hold Period

Host will use commercially reasonable efforts to hold accepted mail and packages for up to thirty (30) calendar days after Host sends notice that the item is available for pickup (the "Included Hold Period"). Host has no obligation to hold any item beyond the Included Hold Period. Fees described in Sections 6.6 and 6.7 may apply as stated in those Sections. In no event is Host required to hold any item longer than forty-five (45) calendar days after notice of availability unless Host expressly agrees otherwise in writing.

6.3 Scanning On Request

Host does not open or scan Subscriber's mail as a systematic service. Subscriber may submit written requests (by email to virtualoffice@megamgmt.net, or by other means Host makes available) to open and scan specific items. Each request is at Host's sole discretion and may be declined.

Virtual Office plans include a courtesy allowance of up to 20 scan requests per calendar month at no additional per-scan charge. Business Address plans include a courtesy allowance of up to 5 scan requests per calendar month at no additional per-scan charge. Scans beyond the courtesy allowance are charged at $2.00 per scan. The courtesy allowance does not create any service-level guarantee or commitment to turnaround time.

Scanned images are transmitted by standard email unless Subscriber provides specific alternate delivery instructions. Subscriber acknowledges that standard email may not be encrypted and accepts this risk. Host employs commercially reasonable safeguards but does not guarantee the security of email transmissions.

Subscriber acknowledges that Host will not open sealed letters, envelopes, or packages unless Subscriber submits a specific request identifying the particular item to be opened or scanned. By submitting such a request, Subscriber expressly authorizes Host, solely with respect to that identified item and solely for the ministerial purpose of fulfilling the request, to open the outer envelope or package, remove contents as reasonably necessary to image them, and transmit those images electronically to Subscriber using Host's standard process. This limited authorization applies only to the specific requested item, does not create any broader agency relationship, and may be refused by Host in Host's discretion. Host is not obligated to inspect contents for completeness, legality, or significance and is not responsible for the content of any item or for any sender objection to opening, except to the extent caused by Host's fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct.

6.4 Mail Forwarding On Request

Host does not forward mail as a systematic service. Subscriber may submit written requests (by email to virtualoffice@megamgmt.net) to forward accumulated items to a designated address. Each request is at Host's sole discretion and may be declined. Subscriber pays actual postage or shipping cost plus a $5.00 handling fee per shipment. Carrier selection, batching, and delivery timing are at Host's reasonable discretion unless Subscriber specifies and Host agrees.

Host does not guarantee forwarding frequency, turnaround time, or delivery by any specific date, and is not liable for delays, misdelivery, or non-delivery by any carrier.

6.5 Junk Mail Filtering

As a convenience, Host may discard items that appear to be commercial solicitations, bulk mail, or obvious junk. Subscriber may request that specific senders not be filtered. Filtering decisions are at Host's reasonable discretion and are not a service subject to any guarantee.

6.6 Late Package Pickup Fee

Host may charge a one-time late package pickup fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per package if a package is not picked up within seven (7) calendar days after Host sends notice of availability. This is an administrative fee only and does not extend the Included Hold Period or the forty-five (45) day maximum hold period under Section 6.12.

6.7 Storage Fee After Included Hold Period

Beginning on the thirty-first (31st) day after Host sends notice of availability, Host may charge a storage fee of Five Dollars ($5.00) per item per week, or partial week, until the item is picked up, returned, refused, surrendered to carrier, or disposed of under this Agreement.

6.8 Package Receiving and Fair Use

Host may receive packages delivered by common carriers during business hours, subject to fair use limits: - Up to ten (10) packages per month - Each package not exceeding fifty (50) pounds

Host may refuse excessive volume or require Subscriber to adjust usage if volume consistently exceeds these limits.

6.9 Package Restrictions

Host does NOT accept: pallets, freight, perishable items, hazardous materials, controlled substances, COD shipments, items over seventy (70) pounds, items requiring special handling or climate control, or any other item Host in its sole discretion deems inappropriate.

6.10 Accountable Mail

Host may, as a convenience, accept certified, registered, or insured mail (up to $500.00 declared value) delivered to the Address. Items over $500.00 in declared value may be refused. Host has no duty to log, preserve, or monitor accountable mail beyond ordinary incidental handling.

6.11 No Duty To Monitor — Subscriber's Risk

Subscriber expressly acknowledges and agrees that Host has no duty to: - Monitor items for legal, tax, government, or time-sensitive content; - Notify Subscriber of the arrival of any specific item; - Preserve any deadline, response window, or statute of limitations; - Forward, scan, or otherwise process any item without an express written request; - Respond on Subscriber's behalf to any item received; - Guarantee receipt, delivery, or timing of any item.

Subscriber assumes all risk arising from use of Wilton Plaza for receipt of time-sensitive, legal, tax, government, banking, or medical correspondence, and Subscriber is strongly advised to maintain an independent mailing address for such correspondence. See Section 9.3.

6.12 Unclaimed Items; Outer Hold Limit

If an item remains unclaimed after the Included Hold Period, Host may assess the fees described in this Agreement and may continue holding the item in Host's discretion, but Host is not required to do so. No item will be held longer than forty-five (45) calendar days after notice of availability unless Host expressly agrees otherwise in writing. After that time, to the extent permitted by law and without further liability, Host may refuse delivery, return the item to sender or carrier, surrender the item to the carrier, or destroy or otherwise dispose of the item as abandoned.

6.13 Authorized Pickup

Only Subscriber and persons expressly authorized by Subscriber in writing through Host's approved process (each, an "Authorized Pickup Person") may pick up mail or packages. Host may require government-issued photo identification, a matching name, a signature, and any other reasonable verification before releasing any item. Host may refuse release of any item if: (a) identity or authority cannot be verified; (b) the requesting person is not listed as an Authorized Pickup Person; (c) the account is suspended, terminated, or materially past due; (d) release would violate law, carrier restrictions, or this Agreement; or (e) Host reasonably suspects fraud, unauthorized access, or a safety or security risk. Subscriber is solely responsible for keeping Authorized Pickup Person information current. Host may rely on the most recent authorization in its possession until it has had a reasonable opportunity to process any change or revocation. Host will not be liable for releasing an item to a person presenting apparently valid identification and authorization, absent Host's fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct.

6.14 No Liability For Contents or Handling

Host is not responsible for the contents of any item received at the Address. Host is not liable for delays, loss, damage, non-receipt, non-delivery, or mishandling of any item, except in cases of fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct. See also Section 11.

7. CONFERENCE ROOM

7.1 Virtual Office

Two (2) sessions per calendar month, up to two (2) hours each, during business hours, subject to availability. Advance booking of twenty-four (24) hours required. Cancellation less than 24 hours in advance counts as a used session. Maximum occupancy: six (6) persons. Sessions do not roll over to subsequent months. Additional sessions beyond the included two: $25.00 per session (up to two hours), subject to availability, billed monthly in arrears.

7.2 Other Plans

$25.00 per hour, subject to availability. Minimum booking of one (1) hour.

7.3 Conduct

Subscriber will leave the room as found. Damage to the room or its contents is at Subscriber's expense.

On-site Notary Public services included at no additional charge during business hours, subject to notary availability.

8.2 Business Address

8.3 Not A Service Guarantee

Notary availability is subject to the notary's other duties and is not guaranteed at any specific time. Notary services are separate from Host's corporate services and are governed by Florida notary law.

9. SUBSCRIBER'S OBLIGATIONS AND COMPLIANCE

9.1 Subscriber's Compliance Responsibility

Subscriber is solely responsible for compliance with all applicable laws and regulations related to Subscriber's use of the Wilton Plaza address, Subscriber's business operations, and Subscriber's receipt of mail, including but not limited to: - Any federal, state, or local mail-receiving regulations applicable to Subscriber - State and local business registration requirements - State registered agent designation requirements - Federal and state tax obligations - Industry-specific licensing and regulatory obligations

Host does not represent that the services provided under these Terms satisfy any regulatory requirement applicable to Subscriber. Subscriber is solely responsible for determining whether Subscriber's intended use complies with applicable law.

9.2 Accurate Information

Subscriber must provide and maintain accurate contact information, including email, phone, and mailing address. Subscriber must notify Host of any change within five (5) business days. Host is not liable for missed communications due to outdated or inaccurate contact information.

9.3 Independent Mailing Address — Subscriber's Responsibility

Host does not undertake any duty to monitor for, identify, escalate, or ensure timely delivery of legal notices, governmental notices, tax notices, court papers, or other time-sensitive official communications, and Subscriber shall not rely on the Address or the Services for those purposes. Subscriber is strongly advised to maintain a separate, independent mailing address for legal, tax, government, banking, medical, and other time-sensitive correspondence, and Subscriber assumes all risk arising from reliance on Wilton Plaza as the sole address for such correspondence.

9.4 No Representations About Host

Subscriber may not represent or imply to any third party that Host is Subscriber's mail agent, representative, custodian, fiduciary, or registered agent. Subscriber may not display or use Host's name or likeness in any manner that implies such a relationship.

9.5 Cooperation With Screening

Subscriber agrees to cooperate with Host's identity verification, fraud screening, and compliance checks at onboarding and from time to time during the term.

10. TERMINATION

10.1 By Subscriber

Subscriber may request termination by emailing virtualoffice@megamgmt.net or by using any online cancellation method Host makes available. Host will send confirmation of receipt of the cancellation request by email within two (2) business days. Termination is effective at the end of Subscriber's current paid period. An early termination fee per Section 3.6 applies only if Subscriber selected quarterly billing and terminates within the 12-month initial term.

10.2 By Host — Non-Payment

If Subscriber's quarterly or annual payment fails and is not resolved within seven (7) days of the account entering Restricted status, service is automatically terminated.

10.3 By Host — Breach

Host may terminate if Subscriber materially breaches any provision of these Terms, uses the address for prohibited purposes, or fails to comply with Subscriber's obligations under Section 9.

10.4 By Host — Business Decision

Host may terminate for any reason with thirty (30) days written notice and a prorated refund of any prepaid unused period.

10.5 Immediate Termination

Host may terminate immediately, without notice or cure period, if: (a) Subscriber or any representative appears on the OFAC SDN list or any government sanctions list (b) Subscriber's use of the address is connected with criminal activity, fraud, or illegal purpose (c) Subscriber or Subscriber's guests threaten, harass, or endanger Host's staff or building occupants (d) A court or government agency orders Host to cease providing services to Subscriber (e) Subscriber designates Host as Subscriber's registered agent without a separate executed Registered Agent Agreement (Section 1.4) (f) Host receives credible information that continued service poses a legal, regulatory, or safety risk (g) Subscriber misrepresents Host as Subscriber's mail agent, custodian, or representative

10.6 Post-Termination

If any portion of this Section 11 is held unenforceable, that portion shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted or, if necessary, modified or severed only to the minimum extent required, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

11.8 Conspicuous Disclosure

The limitations in this Section 11 are clear, specific, conspicuous, and material to Host's willingness to provide the services at the fees stated. Subscriber's acceptance of these Terms at checkout constitutes affirmative acknowledgment of these limitations.

12. INDEMNIFICATION

Subscriber shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Host and the Protected Parties from and against any and all third-party claims, demands, actions, proceedings, damages, losses, liabilities, judgments, fines, penalties, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) arising out of or relating to: (a) Subscriber's use of the Services or the Address; (b) Subscriber's business, operations, mail, packages, or other items; (c) Subscriber's breach of this Agreement; (d) Subscriber's violation of applicable law; or (e) any act or omission of Subscriber or any person acting on Subscriber's behalf, except to the extent finally determined to have been caused by the fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of Host or the applicable Protected Party.

Subscriber's indemnification obligation survives termination of these Terms.

Host may, at its option, assume the defense and control of any matter otherwise subject to Subscriber's indemnification, in which case Subscriber will cooperate with Host's defense.

13. GENERAL

13.1 Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to conflict-of-laws principles.

13.2 Disputes

Disputes under $1,000: informal resolution first, followed by good-faith negotiation. Disputes over $1,000: good-faith mediation in Broward County, Florida, before any litigation, followed by litigation in the state or federal courts located in Broward County, Florida. Either party may seek injunctive relief without mediation to prevent unauthorized address use or protect intellectual property.

13.2.1 Payment Disputes. Subscriber agrees to contact Host at virtualoffice@megamgmt.net before initiating any chargeback, payment dispute, or reversal with Subscriber's bank or payment processor. If a chargeback is filed without prior good-faith contact with Host, and Host successfully contests the chargeback, Subscriber may be responsible for any fees imposed on Host by the payment processor (typically $15.00-$25.00 per dispute) in addition to the original amount owed.

13.3 Attorneys' Fees

In any action or proceeding to enforce these Terms, the prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

13.4 Entire Agreement

These Terms, together with any Service Description, the Privacy Policy, and any voluntary authorizations executed by Subscriber, constitute the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations, and understandings.

13.5 Amendments

Host may update these Terms from time to time. Non-material operational or administrative changes may take effect on thirty (30) days notice. Material changes affecting pricing, automatic renewal, minimum term, cancellation rights, early termination fees, dispute resolution, or privacy practices will apply only at Subscriber's next renewal term or upon Subscriber's affirmative consent, unless earlier application is required by law.

13.6 Severability

If any provision of these Terms is held unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain in full force and effect, and the unenforceable provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable while preserving the original intent.

13.7 No Waiver

Host's failure to enforce any provision of these Terms does not constitute a waiver of that provision or any other provision.

13.8 Assignment

Subscriber may not assign these Terms or any rights hereunder without Host's prior written consent. Host may assign these Terms to any successor entity, affiliate, or in connection with a sale of all or substantially all of Host's assets.

13.9 Electronic Consent

Subscriber consents to receiving all notices electronically. Electronic signatures and records are valid under the federal E-SIGN Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 7001 et seq.) and Florida UETA (Fla. Stat. 668.50). These Terms, accepted via clickwrap at checkout, constitute Subscriber's legally binding electronic signature.

Host is not liable for any failure or delay in performance due to circumstances beyond Host's reasonable control, including but not limited to natural disasters, acts of war, acts of terrorism, civil disturbances, pandemics, government actions, utility failures, carrier failures, or internet disruptions.

13.11 Notices

All notices under these Terms will be sent via email to the addresses on file. Email notice is deemed received twenty-four (24) hours after sending. Subscriber is responsible for maintaining a monitored email account and an accurate email address on file. Host may also use any backup contact information Subscriber provides for urgent matters.

13.12 Law Enforcement; Legal Process; Cooperation

Host may preserve, disclose, provide access to, or surrender Subscriber's account information, records, mail, packages, images, or other materials to the extent Host reasonably believes necessary or appropriate to: (a) comply with a subpoena, warrant, court order, legal process, or formal governmental request; (b) respond to law enforcement, regulatory, or governmental inquiries; (c) protect the rights, property, safety, or operations of Host, the Property, other subscribers, carriers, or the public; or (d) investigate suspected fraud, abuse, prohibited shipments, unlawful conduct, or violations of this Agreement. Unless prohibited by law, or unless Host reasonably believes notice would create a risk of harm, concealment, flight, evidence destruction, or other improper conduct, Host may attempt to notify Subscriber of such request, but Host has no duty to provide advance notice, to challenge any demand, to seek a protective order, or to delay compliance. Host may comply with such requests without liability to Subscriber and may recover from Subscriber its reasonable compliance costs to the extent permitted by law.

13.13 Independent Contractors

Host and Subscriber are independent parties. Nothing in these Terms creates any employment, partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship.
